

PETERSBURG SOCIETY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., June 24.—(Torrid weather during the past week put little, if any, check on local society, which has been unusually gay for this season, when quite a number of Petersburg people are leaving for cooler resorts than the Cockade City.

The marriage of Miss Roberta Bolling Gill to Mr. Waverly W. Minchew was decidedly the social event of the week, and aroused much interest among the many friends of this popular young couple. The wedding took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wednesday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Robert H. Barnwell, rector of church. Among the many guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Payne, Miss Mary Lou Gray and Mr. Percy Gray, of Norfolk; Misses Elizabeth and Claudia Minchew, of Washington.

PEOPLE IN BATH

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARM SPRINGS, VA., June 24.—Mrs. Trice Kelley in company with her mother, Mrs. Dowdy, and infant child, this week were returning from a trip via Natural Well, when the horse frightened and threw them from the buggy, rendering Mrs. Dowdy and the little child unconscious for a while. At last accounts they were recovering.

ington; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker Warren, of Bacon's Castle, Mrs. Frances Culpeper, of Norfolk; Miss Melville Bolling and Mrs. M. L. Armistead, of Baltimore.

THE COUNTRY CLUB.
There is always something doing at the Country Club, and the latest novelty is the progressive tennis party, which has just been introduced. The club was especially gay Thursday evening when a delightful dance was given, preceded by a number of private entertainments. At the dance were Miss Nan Payne, of Warrenton, Va.; Miss Anne Elizabeth Clarke, of Cooperstown, New York; Miss Gertrude Bush, of Hampton, Va.; Miss Renda, of Hagerstown, Md.; Miss Foster, of New York; Miss Thelma Blair Berkeley, of Farmville, Va.; Miss Gray, of Norfolk; Miss West, of Decatur, Georgia; Miss Nellie Mott, Hamilton, Miss Anne Hamilton, Gill, Miss Margaret Gill, Miss Mary Eldridge, Bensley, Miss Emily Townes, Miss Naunna Martin, Miss Virginia Bull, Miss Josephine Budd, Miss Anne Della Patterson, Miss Mary Patterson, the Misses Elizabeth, Della, and Mary Bryan, Miss Mary Meade Bernard, Miss Nan Davis, Miss Ashley Camp, Miss Mary Geo, Miss Pace Nicholas, Miss Beale Myers, Miss Naunna Myers, Miss Helen Myers, Miss Beatrice Pinckney Jones, Miss Lena Schuler, and Miss Mary Cole. The chaperones were Mrs. R. C. Scott, Mrs. John Mann, and Mrs. H. H. Hinton.

A big crowd of children were present and the affair was a great success in every way.

COMPLIMENTARY DINNER.
Before the dance Mr. Wm. L. Zimmer, Jr., gave a dinner in honor of Miss Nellie McGinnis Hamilton, Miss Clarke, of Cooperstown, N. Y., and Miss Payne, of Warrenton, Va. The gentlemen present with Mr. Zimmer were Messrs. John P. V. Ruffin, Thomas Hobbs, J. Dunn Martin and Samuel Zimmer. Quite a number of suppers were given by members of the club.

Miss Mary Geo gave a delightful card party at the Country Club Thursday afternoon in honor of the young ladies to whose card club she belongs.

Mr. John H. Powell, of Richmond, who gave a remarkably fine piano recital in Petersburg Monday evening, at the request of the ladies of St. Paul's Church, held quite a reception after the entertainment, and was warmly greeted by many admiring friends.

ELEGANT ENTERTAINMENT.
The Misses Elizabeth, Lella and Mary Bryan entered the delightful and very attractive home Wednesday afternoon and evening in honor of their guest, Miss Gertrude Bush, of Hampton, Va. Rev. C. Braxton Bryan and his wife, with her sister, Miss Mary Scott, were most cordial as host and hostesses, greeting a large number of visiting young ladies in the afternoon, with many gentlemen in the evening. Among the guests was Mrs. Thomas Pinckney Bryan, of Richmond.

Mrs. R. H. Boykin, of Richmond, who has been visiting in Petersburg for two weeks, returned to her home in Warrenton, Va., on Friday.

Miss Nan Payne, of Warrenton, Va., is the guest of the Misses Zimmer.

Miss Renda, of Hagerstown, Maryland, is visiting Miss Helen Venable on Washington Street.

THE WARM SPRINGS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WARM SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., June 24.—The demands from expectant guests nearly reaches the capacity of the Warm Springs now for room and among them being Richmond's usual large number, who have become accustomed to these health-giving springs and learned to love the surroundings for their unequal beauty and natural scenery.

Among those here now, and who came since last week are: Mrs. C. H. Sprague, and Miss L. E. Lane, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Valentine, of Meade, Kentucky; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Porter, Washington, D. C.; Dr. and Mrs. Maurice S. Dennis, Lexington, Ky.; Albert P. Finkley, New York City; Mrs. Moore, Philadelphia, Pa.; Delaney Skinner, Albany; Wm. Babbot, Bermuda;

NORFOLK SOCIETY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., June 24.—This has been a week of marriages and while there has been no great society, the social life of the city has been very gay.

The contracting parties have been so well-known and so much esteemed and admired that society was bound to take note of them, despite the lack of display attending the affairs of the heart, as the marriages were. It is a notable fact of all the marriages were those of young persons. They include some of the girls who have just finished school and many of the young men who have just started in business for themselves. What the philosophers may deduct from these facts is not light enough reasoning for this gay chronicle of the doings of society, but society takes very kindly to the phenomena of love in all of its phases. One of its gentlest and sweetest manifestations is the union of two hearts of innocent and buoyant younglings in marriage. Society rejoices in the dinners and the dances of the couples of marriage, but it is always ready to defer any event no matter how grand and beautiful, how costly or distinguished, for the union of the boy and the girl who are to be sweethearts for life—forever.

Some of the entertainments of the week were as follows:

The Commandant and officers of the Norfolk navy yard gave a hop Tuesday afternoon in the ballroom over the yard gate. It was a very successful affair.

The room was decorated with flags and bunting, and those who received were: Captain and Mrs. H. H. Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hall, and Miss Mary LaRue, of McClung, Va., were guests of their brother, County Clerk, P. L. LaRue, this week.

Mr. J. D. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, and their little girl, company with Mr. and Mrs. George Chard, all of Stanton, passed here Monday returning home after spending several days driving through the mountains of Bath county for recreation.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Nan Davis, of Mount Grove, to Miss Sallie Lindsay, of Hively, to take place on July twelfth next.

At Letcher, Bath county, has returned from a six weeks' treatment in Richmond, Va., hospital much improved. Mr. Roy Bowers, of near this place, is recovering from a very painful injury received several days ago in a runaway accident.

Dr. A. F. Kerr, who has been a practitioner at Millboro, Bath county, for the past twenty years, has decided to remove and left this week for Greenville, in Augusta county, Va., where he will locate.

Master Roy Tyree, of Ollie, who, a few weeks ago, was caught in a fly-wheel at a saw mill near here and severely injured, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. N. A. Hall and Miss Mary LaRue, of McClung, Va., were guests of their brother, County Clerk, P. L. LaRue, this week.
